

Spotlight on development June 2019

It is high summer - the longest day of the year is almost upon us - but in the world of government, it is mid-winter still and the barometer seems forever set to “stormy”. Will this political freeze be made glorious summer soon?

As ever in recent times, the future seems opaque. However, what is clear is that we have some interesting and varied articles this quarter, with Karen Phull looking at the latest developments in the Community Infrastructure Levy, Jo Ord and Oliver Blundell analysing the recovery of losses in cases of professional negligence, Hannah Sissons reviewing Build UK’s recommendations on contract terms, Jonathan Came reporting the recent case of Swansea Stadium Company Management Limited v City & County of Swansea and Jay Sattin reviewing mitigation measures and their effect upon Habitats Regulations Assessments.

- Habitats Regulations Assessment: Mitigating against your planning permission being quashed Jay Sattin
- Recovering losses in cases of professional negligence Jo Ord and Oliver Blundell
- Draft legislation laid before Parliament: Community Infrastructure Levy Karen Phull
- TCC rules on conclusivity of a certificate of making good Jonathan Came
- Build UK’s Contract Terms Recommendations Hannah Sissons

Clive Lovatt
Partner

View other briefings

Visit our website

Update your subscriptions

Forward to a colleague

Follow us on

This email has been sent to you as a valued contact of Farrer & Co. If you no longer wish to receive any updates or briefings from us, please unsubscribe here.

To enable us to improve the service we provide, we review whether emails are opened, links are clicked or the email is forwarded. Analysis is undertaken for marketing purposes. For more information, including how we use cookies on our website please see our Cookie Policy. You can also view our Privacy Notice here.