The background features a complex network of glowing golden spheres of various sizes, interconnected by thin white lines. The spheres have a textured, metallic appearance and emit a warm, golden light. The lines form a web-like structure across the dark blue background, creating a sense of connectivity and depth.

Entertainment, Creative & Talent

Delivering strategic and practical support to creative individuals in all aspects of their lives

Summary

With our deep understanding of the needs of those within the creative industries and our long history of providing tailored and expert advice, Farrer & Co is able to deliver strategic, practical support to creative individuals in all aspects of their lives.

We provide holistic, commercial and partner-led advice at critical points in your life and career. Our dedicated Entertainment, Creative & Talent team is a market leader in guiding leading talented individuals as they navigate their personal and professional journeys.

We have an expansive breadth of experience, advising creative individuals across the full spectrum of legal disciplines. With respect to your personal life, we are on hand to assist with issues relating to privacy and press intrusion, reputation management, wealth protection and family law. With respect to your professional life, we can provide expert guidance about brand management, commercial contract negotiations or disputes, and the establishment/management of commercial structures and investments.

How we can help

Privacy, press intrusion & harassment

When your career is the focus of attention, an unfortunate consequence can be unwanted and intense scrutiny and intrusion into your personal and private life by the press and paparazzi as well as obsessed individuals.

When appropriate, it is important to take robust and decisive action. We have extensive experience in advising on pre-emptive steps to take that will strengthen your privacy, and in taking action when it is breached.

Reputation & crisis management

We frequently advise clients on the removal of damaging content from websites, search engines, review websites and due diligence databases which includes the use of the 'right to be forgotten'. Our network includes intelligence firms able to conduct detailed technical reviews of clients' online profiles to identify any areas of risk.

Wealth & asset protection

We advise clients on the full range of wealth, tax and estate planning issues. This includes advice regarding the preparation of Wills and other estate planning, establishment of trusts and other wealth protection and tax planning opportunities.

We have particular expertise in advising in relation to the use of trusts and nominee agreements to provide privacy. We also act for the executors of estates where there are issues concerning copyright, music, marketing and film rights.

Family & personal matters

Our expert family lawyers provide creative and pragmatic advice on the full range of family law matters. Experiences of relationship or family breakdown can vary hugely and the benefits of skilled and sensitive legal advice at an early stage can pay huge dividends.

For those in the public eye we work with other experts from around the firm to ensure privacy for the whole family. We also provide advice to individuals at the early stages of a relationship, advising in relation to wealth protection and pre-nuptial and cohabitation agreements.

Relocation & domestic matters

In addition to the above, we have the expertise to advise you on all aspects of moving home or relocating to the UK. This may include immigration matters, purchasing and selling property and other ancillary contracts (such as confidentiality agreements and household staff employment contracts).

Contracts & commercial

From the appointment of agents, to commercial partnerships and endorsements and the management and exploitation of your brand or content, our experienced and approachable commercial team can help you achieve the best results in contract negotiations and disputes.

With a strong track record as advisors in TV & film, publishing, music rights, merchandising and sponsorship, we have the skillset to support your ambitions and the commercial nous to ensure you get the deal you want.

Our Clients

Our clients include prominent international actors, producers, directors, writers, musicians, sports-people and tech entrepreneurs, amongst others, for whom we provide a comprehensive service in all aspects of their lives. This often includes round-the-clock support when facing a media or family crisis.
