

Financial Services Webinar Programme

Winter/Spring 2022

Our team is well-known for its expertise in the investment management and private banking sectors and has advised on many of the significant product and regulatory developments affecting those sectors in recent years. Our clients include a wide range of wealth managers, asset managers, private banks, investment funds, corporate finance firms and other regulated entities both in the UK and overseas.

If you are interested in attending a webinar, please e-mail christina.cronin@farrer.co.uk. Invitations will be sent out by email.

If you would like to be included on our mailing list and receive updates from the Financial Services team, please visit our website where you can subscribe to our insights and publications.

Financial Services – Crypto Assets

Tuesday, 25 January 2022
Venue: Online via Zoom

The first webinar in the series will be looking at crypto assets with presentations on the following

- Key aspects of cryptocurrencies and future trends. Guest speaker: Ratan Sur, Ethereum Core Developer and Chief Technology Officer at Alongside Finance
- Recent developments in the UK market
- UK regulatory approach to crypto assets
- European legislative proposals including the EU Regulation on markets in crypto assets (MiCA)
- Use of non-fungible tokens (NFTs)

Financial Services – Private Banks

Tuesday, 22 February 2022
Venue: Online via Zoom

The second webinar in the programme we cover some key regulatory topics for private banks, including:

- Outsourcing and material third party arrangements, with PRA SS2/21 to be implemented by 31 March 2022 – key points
- Operational resilience: with a deadline to comply by 31 March 2022 - a reminder of main requirements
- Developments in relation to regulated lending
- An update on measures to address authorised push payment (APP) fraud

Financial Services – Sustainability and ESG

Tuesday, 5 April 2022
Venue: Online via Zoom

In this webinar we will focus on the latest developments in relation to sustainability and ESG matters, impacting financial institutions and the products and services they offer.

Webinar information

Details of the webinar will be included in the invitation and reminder emails.

Details

Webinars:

- typically last for around one hour with time for Q&A;
- CPD – please retain a copy of the invitation for your records if you need to evidence your continuing professional development;
- are free of charge.

There will be an opportunity for questions during each webinar, but if preferred, questions can be emailed to Grania Baird at grania.baird@farrer.co.uk.

The contents of webinars may vary slightly to reflect then current developments.

We are happy to organise internal webinars for our clients on agreed topics. If this is of interest, please contact Grania Baird.

Grania Baird
Partner
Head of Financial Services